

Sabrina's Prayer Update

Mar/Apr 2023

Dear Praying family & friends

My heart is filled with joy and thanksgiving as I write this last prayer letter in Cambodia. I thank God for blessing me with angels around me to help me pack up and say goodbye to many of my dear Khmer friends and OMF colleagues.

People have asked me how I feel leaving Cambodia? I told them I have mixed feelings: First, I feel a little sad, for my heart's desire is to serve one more term before I retire. Nevertheless, God's thoughts and ways are higher than ours! Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 says, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven..." For health reasons, I need to complete God's ministry in Cambodia and return to Canada in April. Second, I feel so excited in my heart. There is nothing more joyful than to have witnessed the grace and mercy God has shown to the disciples of Jesus; enabling them to walk closely with Him despite the trials, testing and challenges they face at times.

Last Sunday, Hope for Life Church had a farewell for me after worship. I was very encouraged and blessed by their sharing. How they have grown into mature disciples of Jesus over these ten years :) How God's love has been poured out in each of their lives through their many ups and downs. Most importantly, they have truly experienced that God's love and faithfulness will never leave or forsake them :) now and the days ahead!

I ask myself "Was it worth it all to be a missionary in Cambodia"? Yes, God did it All !!!

Farewell Sabrinalovely family of God :)

I thank God that He has led Hope for Life Church to set up a future partnership with another former OMF evangelical church; the pastor will be the advisor for HFL church. A few weeks' ago, the whole leadership team (more than 10 people) from Pochengtong church came to meet with our (HFL) leadership team to show support and encouragement to them! My heart was filled with THANKSGIVING AND JOY to see how our good shepherd cares for His sheep.

Prayer points:

1. Pray that God will bless the partnership of the two churches as they continue to grow deeper in faith and in love for reaching out to the Khmers for Jesus!
2. Pray for my last medical test in Singapore, March 19-24.
3. Pray for good transition and for an apartment to become available!

Looking forward to seeing many of you soon :)

With Love ♡ Sabrina
